DANUBE FAB Performance Plan for the second reference period (RP2, 2015-2019)

According to Regulation (EU) no. 390 of 2013 on the performance of air navigation services, the National Supervisory Authorities (NSA) of EU countries are responsible for the development of Performance Plans at the level of Functional Airspace Block (FAB), for the second reference period (RP2, 2015 - 2019), until June 30, 2014.

Autonomous Direction The Romanian Civil Aeronautical Authority (AACR), as NSA Romania, collaborated with NSA Bulgaria, in order to carry out the activities necessary to prepare the Performance Plan at DANUBE FAB level, for the second reference period (RP2, 2015 - 2019).

The Performance Plan at DANUBE FAB level includes separate sections, related to Romania (RO) and Bulgaria (BG) and aggregate sections at DANUBE FAB level.

The objectives of DANUBE FAB included in the Performance Plan for RP2 were considered in accordance with the requirements by EC Decision no. 348/2015 of March 2, 2015, in the key areas of safety, environment and cost efficiency performance and by Decision COM 2016/599 of April 15, 2016 for the key area of capacity performance.
